The citizens of Hardinsburg are being waked up to the fact that the centennial will be a big thing, and they don't intend that it shall be a failure.

The liver is the organ most speedily disordered by malarial poisons. Ayer's Ague Cure expels these poisons from the system, and is a most excellent remedy for liver complaints.

Mrs. Freaks, the estimable wife of Mr. John Freaks, of Brandenburg, died at their home last Thursday, after a long illness. She was an exemplary wife, a devoted Christian, and a lady whose memory will be cherished "as a most precious legacy" by all who knew her.

The Hardinsburg fair begins next Tuesday. From the present outlook it will be the best for many years. Nearly all of the stalls have been taken, which indicates a good show of stock. There will be some fine racing each day, and other attractive features. Let everybody go and have a good time.

Weakness of the joints and muscles, impurity of the blood, urinary catarrh, and other disordered organic functions, permanently cured by using Brown's Iron Bitters. It strengthens the affected parts, infuses new life, new health, and new vigor into the whole general system, and makes life seem well worth living.

Mr. M. A. Whiteley, Toledo, Ohio, writes: "After trying all advertised medicines for nervous weakness and early decay, I gave up in despair, and resigned myself to the seemingly inevitable—a premature grave. Happening to hear a druggist recommend Brown's Iron Bitters for dizziness, I bought myself a bottle. I am most agreeably surprised to find myself restored to perfect health, strength, and manhood. I feel sure the cure is permanent, yet in future I intend to observe more carefully the laws of health."

Cheering Intelligence.

A note to the editor of the NEWS, from President Allen, written Monday, conveys the following cheering intelligence:

"This is county court day, and many people are in town. There is more enthusiam about the centennial than I have yet seen, and reports from subscriptions are a hundred per cent. better than heretofore. I would like for solicitors to report to me occasionally. ALF ALLEN."

A General Stampede.

Never before was there such a rush made for the drug stores as is now, for a Trial Bottle of Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. All persons affected with Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Severe Coughs, or any affection of the throat and lungs, can get a Trial Bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at any reliable Drug Store.

Amazing Curiosity.

Mr. Caleb Hawkins has brought to this office a corn-tassel that is a decided curiosity. It is as full of grains of corn as it can hold, and as their color is red, and the tufts of the tassel a deep yellow, the whole concern resembles a bunch of coral and amber beads. We have never seen anything like it, and have stored it away in our cabinet of curiosities.

Ladies' Centennial Meeting.

We are requested to invite the ladies of Cloverport to assemble to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Bowmer, corner of Main and Breckenridge, to organize sub-committees and consider the ways and means of a thorough canvass of the city and surrounding country in behalf of the proposed centennial celebration. All the ladies in town, and those adjacent thereto, including Holt's Bottom, are requested to attend. We hope our fair friends will turn out en masse. If the ladies of the county take the matter in hand we'll have a celebration to be proud of, for what saith the wise man?

"When a woman will she will,
You may depend on't."

Brain Workers.

The complicated diseases arising from an over-worked brain or excessive nervous excitement, should not be neglected, lest they end in insanity and a premature grave. Heed such symptoms as nervous debility, blotches, skin diseases, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, cough, indigestion, catarrh of the bladder, and general despondency. When thus afflicted, make haste to Brown's Iron Bitters. It strengthens and body exhausted by disease and ing; is the truest of all life-giving and Nature's best assistant in restor- proper functions to every organ af- It will surely cure you, for it has housands.

AN INDIANA TRAGEDY.

An Aged German Farmer Murdered at Midnight for his Money.

Intelligence reaches us of an atrocious murder committed upon the person of an aged German farmer named Johan Niehaus, in Anderson township, in the lower part of Perry county, Indiana, which occurred at or near midnight on Monday of last week. The particulars of the crime, as detailed to us by a citizen of Perry, are as follows:

Mr. Niehaus was a hard-working man, and had by a long life of patient industry and frugality accumulated a handsome little property, enough to keep him and his wife in comfort the balance of their days, and some to spare for their children. He was in the habit of keeping considerable sums of money about the house, a fact, however, that was known only to the immediate family and two or three of the most intimate of their neighbors. On the night above mentioned, Mrs. Niehaus and a son-in-law, who resided with the family, were absent from home on a short visit to a relative, leaving the old gentleman and two daughters as occupants of the house. Along about midnight Mr. Niehaus was awakened by the noise made by some one moving about the house, and jumping out of bed ran to the door of his sleeping-room, which opened into the hallway, to see who it was. The moment he appeared in the doorway some one standing in the hall fired upon him with a pistol, the ball taking effect in a vital spot, and the old man fell dead in his tracks. The report of the pistol aroused the daughters, who rushed out of their room to discover two men in the hallway. The youngest girl ran screaming past them and out of the door, for the purpose of alarming the nearest neighbors. One of the men fired at her as she ran, but fortunately without effect. Divining her intention they immediately ran away also. In a few moments, when the daughter returned with several of the neighbors, it was then discovered that Mr. Niehaus had been murdered, and an examination disclosed the fact that a bureau, in one of the drawers of which the old man had deposited several hundred dollars a few days before, had been plundered, as the money was gone and some of the contents of the drawer were scattered on the floor. The robbery had been effected before the murder, as the elder daughter says neither of the robbers entered the room after she and her sister came out into the hall, but both ran out of the door and disappeared as soon as the latter had made good her escape from the house.

There was no clue to the perpetrators of the crime when our informant last heard from the scene of the tragedy, but it is evident that the perpetrators were parties who were familiar with the premises, and had knowledge of the presence of the money in the bureau.

The Centennial Meeting of the Ladies' Committee of Arrangements at Hardinsburg.

The committee of arrangements met at Mrs. G. W. Beard's, chairman of the committee, on September 18, 1282. From reports from different parts of the county, we are encouraged to believe the centennial will be a success.

On motion, said committee protest against the idea which has gone out from the article published in last week's NEWS, said impression being this—that the committees appointed in different parts of the county were not expected to solicit decorations simply, but to request contributions in money or good substantial food, such as ment, bread, pies, pickles, apples, etc. In short, we can manage with our fingers. Said committees are also expected to see that these contributions are collected and delivered to the executive committee in Hardinsburg, on or before the 15th of October. Meats are to be delivered on the 1st of November, the day before the celebration. Those who desire to cook their own meats are at liberty, of course to do so, but those who do not desire to do so must send their meats in time to have them barbecued on the ground. Fowls of all kinds, are expected to be cooked at home.

It would be well for said lady committees through the county to report from time to time of their success to the chairman of the two standing committees in Hardinsburg, Mrs. G. W. Beard and Mrs. T. A. McGill.

For the encouragement of the ladies of Hardinsburg who heartily concur in this patriotic undertaking with their sisters all over the county, please let us have good reports as early and as rapidly as possible. Ladies whose names may not have been mentioned on a committee, yet will willingly aid, will consider themselves at liberty and earnestly requested to do so.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday, October 2, 1882, the first day of circuit court, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Please let us have a full committee at our next meeting.

MRS. G. W. BEARD, Chmn.
LETITIA JONES, Sec'y.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. J. Keys, at 8 o'clock a. m., September 10th, 1882, Mr. GIDEON FRENCH, of Garfield, Ky., to Miss GEORGIA KEYS, of Dry Valley, Ky. Ida L. Hardin and Mr. Frank Haynes, Miss Bell Keys and Mr. Willie Parr, were the attendants, and Rev. J. C. Crabtree the officiating clergyman. A host of friends gathered in to witness the ceremony. Everything passed off quietly, and as soon as the congratulations were over the happy couple started to Stephensport en route to Louisville to attend the Exposition a few days. May they have all the happiness that can be allotted to one couple.

"Be it like summer, may they find
Bliss, beauty, hope, where'er they roam;
Be it like winter, when confined—
Peace, comfort, happiness, at home.

Like day and night—sweet interchange
Of care, enjoyment, action rest,
Absence nor coldness can ne'er estrange
Hearts by unfailing love possessed.

Like earth's horizon—be their scene,
Of life a rich and various ground;
And, whether lowering or serene,
Heaven all above it and around.

When land and ocean, day and night,
When years and nature cease to be,
May their inheritance be bright,
Their union,—one eternity!"

A wish from a true FRIEND.

Prof. Z. F. Smith.

We had a call from this distinguished educator Monday, and enjoyed a very pleasant and entertaining chat with him. Prof. Smith was superintendent of public instruction prior to the accession of Rev. Howard Henderson, and brought the school system of the state from chaos into order and symmetry. He is a practical educator of long and large experience, and has made the common school systems of other states his study. He is a candidate for the position again, and should he be elected (as he ought to be) will enter upon the duties of the office thoroughly equipped with information that will enable him to perfect the system until it becomes what it was intended to be. As it is, our school system has of recent years been run in such a slipshod manner that it has become more of a nuisance than a benefit. Prof. Smith is a gentleman of energy and talent, a high-toned Christian gentleman, as near faultless in habits and conduct as human nature can well attain, and is just the right man for the position. We are for him against all comers.

Highly Esteemed.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

After a Three Days' Session Hon. Thos. A. Robertson, of Larue, Secures the Nomination.

Pursuant to the call of the district convention, the delegates from the several counties composing the fourth congressional district, assembled at Elizabethtown in mass convention Wednesday of last week for the purpose of nominating a successor to Hon. J. Proctor Knott in the popular branch of the next congress.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock a.m. by Mr. B. F. Beard, of Breckenridge, the chairman of the district committee, and Judge N. McC. Mercer, of Breckenridge, was chosen temporary president and H. A. Sommers, of Hardin, temporary secretary. The usual routine committees were appointed, when the convention adjourned for dinner. The following gentlemen composed the committees:

J. W. Hays, of Hardin,
D. S. Smith, of Larue,
S. T. Spaulding, of Marion,
R. T. Craycroft, of Meade,
J. P. Murray, of Nelson,
H. D. McHenry, of Ohio,
Thos. J. Grundy, of Washington.

ON RESOLUTIONS.

W. K. Barnes, of Breckenridge,
W. B. Gwynn, of Bullitt,
J. S. Wortham, of Grayson,
Dr. G. W. Strickler, of Hardin,
W. W. Brownfield, of Larue,
R. T. Burton, of Marion,
A. W. Moremen, of Meade,
J. B. Guthrie, of Nelson,
Dr. J. E. Pendleton, of Ohio,
L. D. Walker, of Washington.

On the reassembling of the convention at 2 o'clock p. m., the committee on credentials tendered their report, which was adopted.

The committee on organization reported, for permanent chairman, Hon. Thomas J. Grundy, of Washington county; for permanent secretary, H. A. Sommers, of Hardin, and J. W. Hopper, of Marion. Frank Gwynn, of Bullitt, C. J. Yager, of Grayson, and John P. Murray, of Nelson, assistants. The committee also reported a resolution that the rules governing the lower house of the legislature, so far as applicable, should govern the convention, and a second resolution limiting all speeches except those nominating candidates to five minutes.

Mr. Fogle, of Marion, unsuccessfully attempted to amend so that a majority instead of a two-thirds, vote should change the rule for dropping hindmost candidates.

The committee on resolutions reported: 1. Approval of the call for the convention. 2. Reaffirmation of devotion to the principles of the party. 3. Opposition to all federal abuses and extravagancies, and misappropriations of the public moneys. 4. Pledging support to the nominee.

Nominations being declared in order, Dr. S. M. Hobbs, of Bullitt, Thos. A. Robertson, of Larue, Col. Edmund Butler, of Meade, E. E. McKay, of Nelson, E. Dudley Walker, of Ohio, and W. O. Cunningham, of Washington, were all put in nomination in the order named.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Hobbs 4, Robertson 13, Butler 5, McKay 16, Walker 13 and Cunningham 15.

Five ballots being taken without change from the above, the convention adjourned until 7:30 p.m.

On reassembling at the hour designated, balloting was resumed and kept up, without change from the first ballot taken until 9 o'clock, when, after the 61st ballot, the convention adjourned until 9 a. m. Thursday.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The convention met again as per adjournment, and the 62nd ballot resulting as had those of the previous day, Hon. A. W. Moreman, of Meade, offered a resolution to drop the hindmost man after the 65th ballot until a nomination was reached, which was antagonized and withdrawn.

Hon. H. D. McHenry, of Ohio, offered a resolution appointing ten men to consider and report some plan to arrive at a nomination, which was adopted, and a committee appointed, which retired, consulted the candidates, and returned with majority and minority reports, both of which were rejected, after which the balloting was resumed.

The 100th ballot disclosing no change in the vote, a committee of three were appointed to notify the candidates that the convention looked to them for action that would break the deadlock, after which the convention adjourned until 3:20.

The candidates respectfully informed the committee that they were not members of the convention and had no right to participate in the proceedings, but begged the committee to assure the convention that they would each and all cheerfully abide by its decision, all of which the committee reported to the convention when it reassembled at 3:30.

This little farce being played the balloting was resumed, and kept up until the 124th ballot, when Col. Butler, of Meade, succumbed to the inevitable and had his name withdrawn, the five votes of his county being divided among Hobbs, Cunningham and Walker, thus creating the first diversion in the dreary monotony. After the 145th ballot the convention adjourned until 7:30 p.m., at which hour it reassembled only to go through the same old weary work of balloting, the 177th being taken at 9 o'clock, and resulting: Robertson 13, Walker 14, McKay 20, Cunningham 15, Hobbs 4. The convention adjourned until 9:30 a.m. Friday.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The convention was called to order at the designated hour Friday morning, when Bullitt county withdrew Hobbs.

Alfred Moremen's resolution to drop the hindmost man now prevailed, and Cunningham fell its victim. Then the fun began to wax fast and furious. The object of all hands was now to down McKay, which proved an easy task after Walker's head dropped in the basket at the 189th ballot. The strength of all of the defeated candidates were concentrated on Robertson, who, on the 190th ballot came, under the string a full length ahead of his Nelson competitor.

HARDINSBURG.

School is in full blast.

Hobbs stuck to his little 4.

The fair begins next Tuesday.

Miss Mattie Smith is sick with fever.

Our streets are needing some work badly.

Latest thing in shoes at Beard & Beeler's.

Bank Vassels has been ill for the last week.

The circuit court docket is not very heavy.

A new box of Dry Goods at Beard & Beeler's.

There is to be no dancing in the centennial grounds.

There will be some good racing at the fair next week.

Sweet potatoes are scarce in this market at $1 per bushel.

The centennial will be a big boom, and don't you forget it.

Tom Robertson got it. Well, Tom, we are for you very solid.

Mr. Roland Smith is threatened with an attack of typhoid fever.

Some of our citizens were taking in the Louisville fair last week.

Ought we not to have a procession and an illumination at the centennial?

Pulliam & Robards have the largest Fall stock in town. Prices to suit the times.

Pulliam & Robards have the largest and most select stock of clothing in the city.

Procure a bottle of Herbine of Beard & Beeler, and cure your chills and biliousness.

Mr. Henry Harned has received the appointment of school commissioner pro tem.

Whoop up your centennial subscriptions. Let all the committees put in good work now.

Mrs. J. R. Mattingly, of Planters Hall, is very sick with fever and not expected to recover.

Mr. Frank Haswell has gone to McHenry, Ohio county, and is engaged in the mercantile business.

Pulliam & Robards have now received an immense stock of dry goods, which can be bought very cheap.

Mr. Mortimer Pumphrey is making an active canvass for school commissioner among the magistrates.

The court, fair and centennial will bring a good many people together here, and things will be lively in the old town for a month at any rate.

Robert Woods would make a clear-headed school commissioner, and we say give the young man a chance.

Gus. Richardson may know all about a patent churn-dasher; but, Gus, when it comes to building railroads you must begin with a preliminary survey.

Pulliam & Robards have the largest stock of ladies' cloaks now in the city, at prices ranging from $3 to $10. Go and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

The president of the centennial society would like to have a report from those persons who have subscription papers in their hands, as to what they are doing in that way.

Remember that Pulliam & Robards have just received from New York the largest stock of ladies' cloaks ever put upon this market. They make a special request of the ladies in the town and county to call and examine them. Prices to suit everybody.

Dr. Ernest Haswell, a young man who was raised in this place, left last Tuesday for Chatham, Licking county, Ohio, where he will enter upon the practice of his profession. Ernest graduated at the Medical school in Louisville last winter, and has a very fair knowledge of medical science. He is also very studious and very sober, and the people with whom he is to be associated in the future may rest assured of his competency to serve them.

We feel safe in saying that there has been brought to this place this fall a larger stock of goods than was ever seen here before. Our merchants are wide-awake to the necessity of the times. To supply the large demand for goods they have opened their boards and filled their shelves to overflowing with every quality and variety of goods that can be called for. No one need go beyond Hardinsburg expecting to be bettered by his purchase. Our merchants can buy as cheap as those in Cloverport or elsewhere, and of course are able to sell accordingly.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Dr. J. W. Meador, of Ohio County, Named as the Goat to Become Entangled in the Bush for Tom Robertson's Sacrificial Knife.

At a mass meeting of the republicans of Breckenridge county, held Monday, September 18, 1882, at the courthouse in Hardinsburg, Mr. Gid P. Jolly called the meeting to order and nominated Col. Alf Allen for chairman, which nomination was confirmed.

Col Allen, on assuming the chair, explained that the object of the meeting was to select a suitable man as the standard-bearer of the republican party of this district to make the race for congress.

Mr. Gid P. Jolly was then chosen secretary of the meeting.

Mr. James G. Haswell called on Dr. J. W. Meador, of Ohio county, who came forward in response, and was introduced to the chairman.

Mr. Haswell then moved that an executive committee of three for the county at large be appointed. The motion prevailed, and Messrs. Gid P. Jolly, Morris Eskridge and Judge Barton were appointed.

On motion of Mr. H. A. Oelze, Dr. J. W. Meador was declared the choice of the republicans of Breckenridge county as the candidate of their party for congress.

Dr. Meador accepted the nomination in a graceful little speech, after which the meeting adjourned.

The Railroad Meeting.

Pursuant to the Bewleyville adjournment, those in favor of the "back route" road, the Louisville and Great Western, for which a charter was obtained last winter, assembled in mass meeting at the court-house in Hardinsburg last Monday, the 18th instant, and was called to order by Mr. B. F. Beard.

Rev. J. H. Lennin then read a lengthy paper describing the advantages of said road over the river road.

Judge Mercer moved that this meeting adopt the charter passed by the legislature last winter, and that the charter members organize under said charter and proceed to business. Carried.

Hon. G. W. Beard said that he had been conferring with railroad men, and they all said to him: "Where does your road start from, where does it go to, and what will be the probable cost of construction per mile? Bring your route surveys, maps, profiles and estimates, and we will then have a basis for forming an opinion."

Col. Alf Allen moved that a committee of five be appointed to consult with the commissioners named in the charter of the Louisville and Great Western railroad, as to the time and place to organize under the charter and open the books for subscription. Carried.

Messrs. Morris Eskridge, Robert Jolly, Wm. J. Stith, A. M. DeJernette and G. W. Beard were appointed said committee.

A collection of $3.25 was then raised to defray the costs of correspondence, and the meeting then adjourned.

The Height of Folly.

To wait until you are in bed with disease you may not get over for months, is the height of folly, when you might be easily cured during the early symptoms by Parker's Ginger Tonic. We have known sickly families made the healthiest by a timely use of this pure medicine.—[Observer.

BEWLEYVILLE.

No railroad yet, and the average Bewleyvillean must content himself with hearing the steam thresher.

Wheat threshing is the order of the day around Bewleyville, and the granaries are fairly groaning with their burdens.

Misses Lizzie and Mattie Lewis and Miss Bettie Webb, of Long Lick, have been visiting Mrs. Ed. Bennett near this place.

Mrs. Chick, who has been quite ill for some days, is reported convalescent.

On Monday afternoon three young ladies started from the residence of Mr. Ed. Bennett to Bewleyville to church. All occupied the same buggy, and everything proceeded gaily until about half the distance was traversed, when they perceived that the harness was almost off the horse. An examination revealed the fact that it would be necessary to have a string to repair it. Then came a scene of bewilderment and confusion. No string was to be found. It seemed that they would be compelled to remain on the highway or sadly retrace their steps on foot. L—— sat down and wept. M—— cried aloud, "O, Logan! where art thou?" B—— imploringly cried, "O, Glenn, thou who art ever the man in the right place, wilt thou never come?" Then did they all cry, "O, man, we will never again call thee superfluous." But suddenly a thought entered M——'s mind that she could solve the problem, and with her shoestring she repaired the harness and all moved off gaily and reached Bewleyville without further accident.

On Monday night Mr. James Robertson received a telegram announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Susan L. Robertson. He at once repaired to Muldraugh where he found the corpse, and it was brought to the residence of Mr. Frank Sterrett. Mrs. Susan L. Robertson was born in Jefferson county, Ky., August 27, 1807, afterwards removed to Breckenridge county; subsequently removed to Columbia, Maury county, Tenn., where she died September 10, 1882. At the request of the deceased, no funeral sermon was delivered, but the beautiful burial service of the Methodist Church was impressively performed by Rev. J. R. Dempsey. The deceased was a noble woman, an exemplary mother, and a devoted Christian. She had been a member of the Methodist Church more than thirty years. Although during her illness she suffered much, she was patient, and died in the full triumph of a living faith. The flowers placed by loving hands upon the casket in her Tennessee home, had withered before the arrival at her destination on her last earthly voyage; but the flowers of beautiful Christian duty that blossomed from her soul here below will only become more beautiful in that bright land where "the rainbow never fades."

DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC.

A combination of Protoxide of Iron, Peruvian Bark and Phosphorus in a palatable form. The only preparation of iron that will not blacken the teeth, so characteristic of other iron preparations.

GENTLEMEN: I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, and an impoverished condition of the blood, this peerless remedy, has in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC is a necessity in my practice. DR. ROBERT SAMUELS.
ST. LOUIS, MO., NOV. 24th, 1881. 31st Wash Avenue.

It gives color to the blood, natural healthful tone to the digestive organs and nervous system, making it applicable to General Debility, Loss of Appetite, Prostration of Vital Powers and Impotence.
