Will Test The Local Option Vote.

HARDINSBURG, Ky., Aug., 15.—Special.—R. E. Mattingly, one of the saloon keepers here filed a petition in the Breckenridge Circuit Court to-day enjoining the county Judge and county Clerk from spreading upon the order books the certificate of the Local Option election, alleging that the law is unconstitutional and void.

Resolutions of Condolence and Respect of Breckenridge Lodge No. 61, Knights of Pythias, of Cloverport, Ky.

WHEREAS it has pleased God in his Providential Dispensation, to bring to a close the earthly career of our beloved brother and brave knight, James G. Stephens, Jr.,

To the Democrats of Breckenridge County.

Owing to the mistaken impression that I would not receive my certificate of qualification until on the eve of the election, which would have given me no time to canvass, I withdrew from the race for a time.
