THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

Candidate H. G. Smith Submits His Views on Religious Matters. LAWYER, August 23, 1897.—I was openly charged by my opponent, Mr. Ashcraft, at a picnic at Oak Grove in Meade county and that too in my absence by agreement with him, as being one disqualified for the office to which I aspire by reason of my views touching religious matters. I here with submit some of my views to the constituents of this Senatorial District: I believe in that religion that cheerfully concedes to your neighbor the right to freely think and act your political, religious and all other subjects. I believe in that religion that at all times swings open the doors to the poor, the wanderer and the unfortunate, without charge and without price, without hope of any other reward than the consciousness of having done something to the comfort of a fellow being, and having taken away some of the sting of poverty and misfortune. I believe in that religion that lights up the face of the father with love and confidence and with the spirit of forgiveness that his little children will come to him at all times believing that he is their protector and support in all their little trials. I believe in that religion that elevates man and instills into him the spirit of chivalry and manhood that would scorn to strike frailty and innocence. I believe in that religion that goes out from home and inspires men and women to noble acts and cements the brotherhood of mankind. I believe in that religion that moves a man to pay his honest debts with 100 cents to the dollar with accrued interest. I believe in that religion that moves a man to pay these debts even though he has to forego some of the pleasures and luxuries of life. I believe in that religion that moves a man to pay his creditors and not seek to make his religion the scape goat for his dishonesty. I submit my case and will accept the verdict without a murmur. H. G. SMITH. Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Vance and family are at the Tar Springs for two weeks, accompanied by Mrs. James A. Vance and son, Mr. A. M. Vance, of Missouri. The marriage of Mr. W. L. Thomas, of Leitchfield, and Miss Eva G. Heston, of Hardinsburg, will take place at the residence of the bride's mother, on Monday morning, Sept. 6, 1897, at 7 o'clock. The friends of both parties are cordially invited. No cards. Immediately after the ceremony the couple will leave for the Nashville Centennial to spend a week. On their return they will be glad to meet their friends at their home in Leitchfield, Ky. Notice to Republicans. The Republicans of the Cloverport Senatorial District will meet in mass convention in Cloverport, Saturday, Aug. 28, for the purpose of selecting candidates for the office of Magistrate and Constable in said district. H. A. ORLIZ, Chairman Committee. WEBSTER. A good rain Sunday. Corn is retalling at 50 cts. per bushel. Let's strike for better public roads. A protracted meeting will begin here next Friday. If not you should by all means attend our protracted meeting. Mrs. Robt. Mattingly and children, of Hardinsburg, are visiting relatives here. This town needs a Cumberland Presbyterian church and a Masonic hall. What say you? Dogan Bros. have 3,000 bushels of corn for which they say they would not take 50 cts. per bushel. It is unpopular to refer to it, but there is a dearth of genuine old fashioned husslers among the agricultural classes. SUDDEN DEATH

Of Mr. Samuel Sulzer, a Pioneer Merchant. He Passes Away at the Ripe Age of Eighty-five.—Was a Native of Switzerland. The news of the sudden death of Mr. Samuel Sulzer at his home in Louisville last Saturday morning, came as a great shock to his many friends in this city. He was taken ill on last Wednesday and died from the effects of kidney trouble, of which he has been a sufferer for many years. He was in his eighty-fifth year and has been an active business man all his life. His name has been a household word in this town for many years, being the proprietor of the Sulzer store, which has built up a large and lucrative business. Mr. Sulzer was a general kind old man who possessed a big heart, a world of charity. He was especially kind to his family and a friend to the orphan. Mr. Julius Nolte, manager of his large business here, assisted by his brother Emil, are his grandchildren. The Louisville Times says of him: From 1836 to 1882 Mr. Sulzer was proprietor of a large dry goods store at Jefferson and Clay streets. He was quite prosperous. Fifteen years ago the infirmities of age compelled him to retire from active life. Since that time he had lived quietly at his Jacob street home. He was among the best-known of the German residents of the city. Mr. Sulzer was born in Bern, Switzerland, in 1812. He came to this country in 1832 and settled in Cincinnati. Four years later he came to this city, engaging in the dry goods business. He was married two times. His first wife was Miss Magdalen Herman, of Cincinnati. By her he had five children. His second wife was Miss K. Kregel, of this city. Eleven children resulted from this union. Five sons and three daughters survive their father. They are J. F. Sulzer, Albuquerque; N. M. S. L. Sulzer, Cannelton, Ind.; W. T. Sulzer, Chicago; Oscar and Fred Sulzer, of this city; Mrs. Charlie Scholl, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Louise Frinx and Mrs. Charles Beecher, of this city. Mr. Oscar Sulzer is a member of the firm of Sulzer & Abell, machinists. Mr. Sulzer was the father of Mr. Henry Sulzer, of the Sulzer-Vogt Manufacturing Company, who died recently. He had been a member of St. Paul's German Lutheran church since his residence in this city. GARFIELD. Remember our excursion, let everyone go. Miss Eddie Scott was visiting at Irvington this week. The meeting at Freedom still continues with much interest. C. S. Board went to Glendean Saturday to be gone a few days. Rev. Buchanan, of Vines Grove, began a meeting at Lost Run church Sunday. Payne and Robert Weatherford were passengers on the West bound train Saturday. They were on their way home from Louisville where they had been for the past few days. Miss Nannie Fisher returned to her home last Thursday accompanied by Miss Nannie Board. Miss Fisher won a host of friends while with us and we regretted for the time to come when she had to return home, but hope she will remember us with another visit. Misses Nannie and Katie Board and Nannie Fisher came home last Sunday from Irvington. They had spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Bandy and attended the Methodist meeting at Irvington. The girls can charm us by telling what a jolly time they had and say everything is lovely at Mr. Bandy's home to make one delighted with a visit there. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Macy and two of their sons have been sick several weeks with typhoid fever. Death entered the home circle last Friday and took from them their oldest son, Clarence. He had been sick six weeks and for several days the friends of Clarence could see he was fast sinking and his stay here on earth was short. It is hard, kind parents, to give one up so dear and one who is just entering into manhood. God's will is not our will. But put your trust in Him who knows best. A distinction without a difference amounts to but little. There is a difference—a real difference—a vast difference between Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve and any other. The greatest difference is in the results obtained from its use. It cures sore eyes, granulated lids and styes quicker than any known remedy and cannot injure the eye of a babe.—Short & Haynes. PATESVILLE. Miss Agnes Gordon is on the sick list. B. F. Arbra went to Owensboro last week. Thanks to the Herbert band for their nice music Saturday. Born, to the wife of M. V. Mrs. Margaret of New Albany, and Mrs. Watkins, of Louisville, returned to their respective homes Friday, after several weeks stay with Mrs. Dan Neafus. The advanced price of wheat is a good hobby with the gold bugs and Republicans, but what good is that price to the hard working farmer. If he has not got the grain to sell, I know of a farmer near here who sold, I think, about 200 bushels last year for 45 cents, this year he will about have enough to supply his family with bread stuff and still ye gold bugs and R. epublicans have done a great thing for the farmer. I think it looks as if the hand of Providence had cut short the wheat crop. Fought With Pocket Knives. Geo. Buhr and Charles Lightfoot fought with pocket knives on the Court-house square in Hawsesville, Sunday night. Buhr now lies at the point of death with a gash in his throat five inches long. Buhr is the stepson of Hon. W. W. Taber, and Lightfoot is the son of Dr. J. F. Lightfoot. The trouble arose over a beautiful young lady of the town, with whom both young men are in love. This people of Daviess county are fighting for free gravel roads. A vote on the question will be submitted to the people in November.
